

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is my recommendation for Jim Donak as an athletic trainer specializing in circus arts and related fundamentals for healthy development.

As a student, co-worker and parent of children trained by Jim, I have observed him first-hand during training classes. I appreciate Jim's thoughtfulness and attention to detail in the development and execution of his curriculums.

In addition to his creativity in curriculum development, Jim is dedicated to the students' success and takes care to tailor programs that specifically challenge and address students' needs. As a trampoline, handstand and stretching coach Jim is innovative and offers a variety of techniques to increase the breadth of the students' knowledge and expertise.

Not only have Jim's skills as an instructor been assets to my and my children's development, but his personal initiative and work as a considerate coach, leader and mentor have also been extremely valuable.

I highly recommend Jim for employment. He is a talented instructor and innovator. With his commitment to healthy approaches to athletics and circus and dedication to passing on these techniques to others, I believe he would be a most valuable addition to your organization.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Orlene Gentile". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned to the left of the typed name.

Orlene Gentile
Circus Artist
former President of the American Youth Circus Organization